WT Docket 03-66; Amendment of Parts 1, 21, 73, 74, and 101 of the Commission's Rules to Facilitate the Provision of Fixed and Mobile Broadband Access, Educational and Other Advanced Services in the 2150-2162 and 2500-2690 GHz Bands

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 1, 2005, Bradley Holmes, Chief Operating Officer of NY3G Partnership ("NY3G"), Darryl DeLawder of DeLawder Communications, Inc., and George Harter of Wi-Com Communications, Inc., met with Henry Allen, Uzoma Onyeije, John Schauble, Catherine Seidel, D'Wana Terry, and Nancy Zaczek regarding the above-referenced proceeding.

The parties discussed the proposal to adopt a "split-the-football" methodology to resolve mutual exclusivity between co-channel licensees operating in the same area. NY3G reiterated its position on the record that such an approach would not provide a viable solution for the F group licensees in New York City. The parties also discussed an alternative solution in New York City, the assignment of the low-power channels to the MMDS licensee and the high-power channel to the grandfathered ITFS licensee.

Very truly yours,
